

Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist Training (SAPST)

Clallam County Training

A Free, Comprehensive Four-day Training on the Science and Application of Prevention

The Prevention Specialist Certification Board of Washington (PSCBW), in collaboration with Clallam County Health & Human Services, Prevention Works! A Community Coalition of Clallam County, and the Port Angeles Healthy Youth Coalition, is sponsoring this comprehensive Substance Abuse Prevention Specialist Training (SAPST), a national curriculum developed by the federal Center for Substance Abuse Prevention.

Dates: Tuesday, May 3, 2011 - Wednesday, May 4, 2011, AND
Tuesday, May 10, 2011 - Wednesday, May 11, 2011

Times: 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM each day

Location: Clallam County Courthouse
223 East 4th Street, Port Angeles, WA 98362

Training Content:

The training will incorporate lecture and experiential learning on various topics including:

- Prevention in its Historic Context
- Research and Planning
- Evaluation
- Media (Media Advocacy, Media Literacy and Social Marketing)
- Human Development/Culture
- Prevention Ethics

Credentialing and Continuing Education:

Participants are required to attend all four days of the training. Upon completion of the training, participants will be awarded a certificate for a total of 30 hours.

The PSCBW has approved hours from SAPST to be used toward the initial application for the entry-level Associate Prevention Professional (APP) credential or the internationally-recognized Certified Prevention Professional (CPP) credential. Hours may also be used to fulfill CPP continuing education requirements. Clock hours may also be available.

Register by Friday, April 22, 2011 — Space is Limited to 30 Participants.
Priority will be given to individuals from Clallam, Jefferson and Kitsap Counties.

The training is free of charge and is supported by a grant from the Washington State National Guard, Western Regional Counterdrug Training Center
