
We All Need To Know How We Measure Up. Is Your Business Responsive to Families?

Are you or do you work for a family friendly business? What makes a family friendly business?

- A business that has those "extras" that maintain quality employees.
- A business that invests in the physical environment of the work place to help families.
- A business with a positive, supportive atmosphere.

If you know a business that is friendly to families, nominate it for Clallam County Prevention Works! Family Friendly Business Award. Fill out the form below and send it to Prevention Works! We want to recognize businesses that measure up by being supportive of families.
