

PREVENTION WORKS!

2019 ANNUAL MEETING

Tuesday, January 15th, 2019

4:00 - 6:00 PM

Olympic Medical Center - Linkletter Hall
939 Caroline St., Port Angeles, WA 98362

“The State of our Children, Youth and their Families in Clallam County”

Presented by Dr. Allison Berry Unthank

Refreshments Provided

Who Should Attend: Children’s Service Professionals, Family Lawyers & Judges, Juvenile Justice Workers, Teachers, Health Care Providers, County Health Officials, Clergy, CASA’s, Parents & Foster Parents, YOU!

Presenter: Appointed as the Clallam County Health Officer in September, 2018, Dr. Allison Berry Unthank graduated from Johns Hopkins University, where she earned her medical doctorate and a masters in public health in epidemiology and biostatics. Dr. Unthank completed a residence in family medicine at the University of Washington and has been working as a family physician and leads the addiction medicine department at the Jamestown Family Health Center in Sequim in addition to her duties as County Health Officer.

Topic of her Talk: Dr. Unthank will present the latest Clallam County Health Assessment Data, highlighting areas of concern and positive responses already underway in Clallam County.

A resource table will be available. Questions: Contact Mary Wegmann at 360-452-2584